

BP 2100

Administrative Staff Organization

The Head of School shall organize the administrative staff in a manner which best enables the School to provide an effective program of instruction.

Authority originates with the elected Governing Board.

Through the Head of School, authority and responsibility are delegated to the administrative team and staff.

The Head of School or designee may adjust staff responsibilities temporarily or permanently to accommodate the workload and/or individual capabilities.